

substance, not sound bites

SERIES PREMIERES
FEBRUARY 2016

Minority
Counselor  TV

WE WANT TO TELL YOUR STORY

"ALL THINGS LEGAL" is a new legal news web series that premier's January, 2016 on the newly launched MinorityCounselorTV.com, where minority legal professionals are promoted as subject matter thought leaders through branded practice area shows, live event coverage, and the aggregation and re-distribution of diversity leader/organization published content. Founded and hosted by veteran lawyer, Jo Saint-George and produced at Howard University's WHUT HD studio in conjunction with Howard's School of Communication television production course, the mission of MCTV is to tell the stories of minority legal professionals to raise their visibility for business, career and historical development. Our mission also includes creating a pipeline of future minority legal media developers.

MCTV will provide media coverage at legal events such as galas, conferences, diversity summits, and award ceremonies to produce special segments that feature key speakers, honorees, and awardees.

Let us feature your lawyers as subject matter experts in thought provoking, informative interviews

Click to view sample interview

www.MinorityCounselorTV.com

Law Firm Events

Bar Association Events

Non-Profit Legal Events

Law School Events

Government Legal Events

Legal Diversity Organization Events